Velma Childers was born 7/24/01 in (Round Rock or Belton?) Texas and died 12/1/83 in Cameron County, Texas. She was buried in Mont Meta Cemetery in San Benito, Texas. Her parents were James Martin Jarrell and Alma Rowe Jarrell. I think that Doc and Velma were married in Belton, Texas, at my great-grandparents' house, probably in 1921. They had no children.

Hi Jill,

Thanks for writing and letting me know the info on Velma Jarrell.\A0 I have updated my information and will update the website when I next update.\A0 I only update the website 3 or 4 times a year due to the amount of work required to upload everything.

I haven't been able to locate any records on Velma.\A0 Do you possibly have any birth certs, death certs, marriage records, etc.\A0 Do you know where they were married?

\A0

Also, you mention she was a sister of your grandmother.\A0 Could you give me your grandmother's name, and, maybe her parents?\A0 I could then probably find census records that would tie them together.

Again, thanks for your help and I look forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely,

Joe Peery

Marion Allstone Childers' wife Velma's maiden name was Jarrell.\A0 They met in Oakland, California, where he was stationed in the army and she was a student at Mill's College.

Velma was a sister of my grandmother-- I knew them both in Harlingen, TX, where they located in 1925.
